The following names were handwritten in a small notebook found in back of the diary kept by Martha Abigail (SWEET) WOOLEY, wife of Charles Luther WOOLEY, from 1896 to 1908. At that time, the family resided in Chicago (Cook) IL. Author of this notebook is unknown. All entries were transcribed as found and obvious mistakes corrected by Frances (FROBERG) WOOLEY July 14, 1989. Entries in right-hand columns obtained from information found at LDS Family History Centers from New Jersey birth, death, marriage, census and cemetery records. This information used only to obtain a time span of the names listed in this notebook and to be used as an aid by those doing research on the WOOLEY, NORRIS, CRAIG and ALLER lines. Any names and info inside brackets [ ] was not on original list. Numbers in front of names are my Record ID Numbers.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—A very large umber of people assembled yesterday fternoon, to witness the laying of the orner stone of the new Clinton Avenue Baptist Church.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Love, of New York. After singing an appropriate hymn, the 132d Psalm was read by the Rev. Mr. Thorn, of the Greene Street M. E. Church. The Rev. E. Sheppard reviewed the history of the enterprise from the building of the Perry Street Chapel and formation of the Sunday school, a mission of the Central Baptist Church, which mission has grown into a Church; a number of Baptists residing in the vicinity, whose memberships were in various Churches in and about Trenton, have joined. Mr. Sheppard was followed by the Rev. E. Lucas, of the First Baptist Church, who spoke at some length, hailing the new project with much favor, and congratulating the new Church in their undertaking, and encouraging them; also speaking of the many benefits to the neighborhood, and hoping the community at large would foster and aid this, and all other means for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom.

The corner stone was then laid, and the pastor, Rev. C. B. Perkins, placed the box yesterday morning.

The jury in the case of the State v. Lewis Kensie, for the larceny of Dr. Hodge's horse and wagon, who had been out about twenty hours, came into Court and said they could not agree. They had sent in a message asking to be discharged. The Chief Justice said he could see no reason why they should be discharged. The idea of the law was that jurors should agree. There was really no reason why twelve sensible men should not agree. It is expected they will reason together and compare views until they harmonize.

Two of the jurors said they were sick, Isaac Hunt and Joseph R. C. Johnson.

The Chief Justice said this was no reason why they should be discharged. If any the jurors were sick a physician would sent in.

One of the jurors said that they wan to hear again the points of law.

The Court—The law in reference to what?

The Juror—About larceny and intoxication.

The Chief Justice then explained the law, the same as was laid down by Judge Buchanan. Larceny was the taking of another man's property with the intent to deprive him of the use of it. Suppose a man takes a horse and drives him a thousand miles from home, will any one pretend to say he is not guilty of larceny?—As to intoxication, it is well known that drunkenness is no excuse in the law. But it is always considered when the Court comes to make up its sentence. Indeed sometimes sentences are suspended altogether in consequence of some peculiar cir-

Rev. A. W. Allen has become pastor of a new Reformed Church at Navesink Highlands.

The camp meeting at Pitman Grove will commence on the 27th of July, and continue for ten days.

The grand jury of Hudson county have found a bill of indictment against Peter Kehoe, charged with killing his wife.

Rev. B. B. Stout, pastor of the Middletown Baptist Church, died last week after three days' illness. He had been in Middletown for 38 years.

Mr. Daniel C. Norris, of Denville, for many years a resident of Boonton, arose and ate his breakfast on Wednesday as usual. In a short time afterwards he was taken with a fainting fit and died in a little while.

The place formerly owned by Edwin Booth at Long Branch, a large brick house and stable and twenty acres of land, has been purchased by Mr. Thomas T. Kinney, editor of the Newark Daily Advertiser, and he and his family will occupy it during the summer.

At St. Mary's Hall yesterday the services were of a private character. At noon the memorial sermon on the late Bishop Doane, the founder of the institution, was delivered in the chapel in the presence of a large audience. The whole programme is being carried out as at first intended.

A little daughter of Henry Eber, of Newark, aged two years, died yesterday from an overdose of morphine. It had been suffering for some days from diarrhœa, resulting yesterday in convulsions. A neigh-

A splendid carriage stopped before a stately mansion, while its inmate, the beautiful Ida Leslie, one of the reigning belles of New York, alighted. As she ran hastily up the steps of her father's dwelling, the door opened, and a middle-aged lady, with a pale and sorrowful countenance, came forth, accompanied by a fair young girl of some seventeen years; both were clad in deep mourning. One glance at their unpretending appearance sufficed to convince the proud beauty that they did not belong to the circle in which she moved, and wondering that they should call there, she passed into the house.

Within the gorgeously furnished parlor that Ida entered sat a lady of some forty-five years of age. She was richly and fashionably attired, and though in her younger days she might perhaps have been as beautiful as her daughter, yet, now that the freshness of youth had faded from her face, no pleasing expression lingered there, for in every lineament was plainly written the cold, haughty, selfish spirit within.

"Mamma," exclaimed Ida, addressing her, as, divesting herself of hat and mantilla, she threw herself upon a velvet lounge, "who were those persons who have just honored you with their company?"

"You have heard your father speak of

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

The historical fields of Somerset County, New Jersey are ripe for the harvest but the workers are few. The price of preserving history, as with freedom, seems to be eternam vigilance and also the ability and willingness to work. A lot of good people in many different organizations in our County have been working to enhance our awareness of this history. They have contributed in a variety of ways toward the goals of discovering, preserving and promulgating the history of Somerset County. There are many shared goals for these many organizations that strive to enhance the knowledge of local history. To name a few: Branchburg Township Historical Society & Historical Commission, Daughters of the American Revolution, Friends of the Old Dutch Parsonage & Wallace House, Hillsborough Historical Society, Franklin Township Historical Society, Meadows Found- ation, Millstone Old Forge Assoc, Historical Society of the Somerset Hills, Somerset County Cultural & Heritage Commission, Washington Campground Assoc, Warren Township Historical Society, Somerset County Historical Trails Assoc., the Van Harlingen Historical Society and our own Somerset County Historical Society. All of these organizations deserve our continued support.

There are several projects for 1995 in our own Society that seem worthy to achieve in addition to performing our regular services of having the library at our Van Veghten House open to the public at scheduled hours, responding to miscellaneous inquires, and arranging monthly meetings with interesting programs to interest local residents:

1. A renewed effort to increase membership and participation.
2. Create and publish a name index to the recently reprinted Beers Atlas of Somerset Co.
3. Reactivate the project to locate and enumerate all of the cemeteries in the County, begun a few years ago, in conjuction with the County Cultural & Heritage Commission.
4. Fund raising and application for a matching grant to preserve the exterior of our Van Veghten House (to repoint the mortor of the foundation and of the brick walls).

We hope you will be willing and able to participate with pride in our activities, in whatever way you can, to preserve knowledge of Somerset County History.

Walter Beekman Studdiford, President
